Visual fractions Great collection of interactives (flash) for working with fractions. Although the degree of difficulty seems to be random rather than progressively more difficult, but it is still a good site. While the method of presentation is common to a number of programs, Visual Fractions does a particularly good job of providing suitable accompanying text.

I've seen analyses of the long odds the U.S. government would face if it ever attempted to confiscate civilian firearms before. The Mathematics of Countering Tyranny seems like a particularly well done example.. The authors compute that under very generous assumptions there are about 83000 door-knockers available to perform confiscation raids.
