About the authors. Terence Hogarth is based at the Institute for Employment Research (IER) at Warwick University. He has around 30 years' experience researching UK and EU labour and training markets. His recent work has concentrated on the operation of apprenticeship systems, and the measurement and assessment of skill mismatches in the UK and in the EU.

Technology, globalisation and the future of work in Europe

A financial transaction tax is a levy on a specific type of financial transaction for a particular purpose. The concept has been most commonly associated with the financial sector; it is not usually considered to include consumption taxes paid by consumers.. A transaction tax is not a levy on financial institutions per se; rather, it is charged only on the specific transactions that are ...
