Voluntary Action: Brains, Minds, and Sociality by Sabine Maasen We all know what a voluntary action is, and we all think we understand the processes leading up to an action we perform. First, there has to be a wish or goal which then leads to an action designed to fulfill that wish or attain that goal.

Voluntary Action: Brains, Minds, and Sociality by Sabine

This text examines the concept of voluntary action, taking into account findings in neuroscience that the brain activation required to perform the action can actually precede the brain activation Read more...
